Terms and Conditions:

All designs and products are original and copyrighted by Thomas Stracke. Likeatures may use photos of your completed artwork and copies of your original reference photos in advertising literature including our website.

A Likeature is a custom piece of hand-sculpted artwork. It reflects the likeness of real people based on photos. They are not intended to be depicted as a replica or portrait of the subject(s). The customer is responsible for providing all details and information necessary in order to capture the uniqueness of the subject(s).

Likeatures is not responsible for anything that happens to a Likeature while in transit. Likeatures will repair any accidental breaks free of charge providing that the customer pays for the shipping/handling to and from Likeatures. If there are any shipping damages, please contact Likeatures for advice on repairs.

All sales are final, no refunds, credits, or exchanges will be made. A 50% non-refundable deposit is to be sent to Likeatures along with an order form, completed information form, and pictures to begin the work. You will be invoiced the remainder of your balance when your Likeature is ready to be shipped. Likeatures will not be shipped until full payment is received. Please allow 10 business days for personal checks to clear. Your photos will be mailed back to you with your finished Likeature.

I have read and agree to these terms and conditions.
